SREE SIDDAGANGA COLLEGE OF ARTS, SCIENCE AND COMMERCE FOR WOMEN

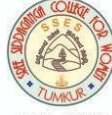

REPORT ON AWARENESS PROGRAMME BY ANTI-RAGGING CELL IN ASSOCIATION WITH IQAC

Ragging refers to a form of abusive and often humiliating behavior, typically carried out by senior students against new or junior students in educational institutions. It can take various forms, including verbal abuse, physical harassment, emotional trauma, and forced participation in demeaning activities. Ragging is a harmful practice that can have severe psychological and physical consequences for the victims.

In this view, to create awareness among the students about the ill effects of ragging and its legal implications, the anti ragging cell in association with IQAC had arranged a street play on 12/09/2022, Monday at 12.15 PM in the college campus. Since the selected time was a leisure time, all the students got an opportunity to witness the programme.

Students of final year B.Com prepared and enacted a street play highlighting how ragging happens and what consequences that a student goes through being a victim of ragging. The play covered emotional and legal aspects of ragging. What a student should do when she is encountered with such situation, what actions does our college take, what legal cover does she get everything was covered in the street play. Though it was an act of 45 minutes, it created an in depth awareness among the students.

Ragging involves abuse, humiliation, or harassment of new entrants or junior students by the senior students. It often takes a malignant form wherein the newcomers may be subjected to psychological or physical torture. Ragging is a crime and it can happen for any reason. Ragging has been known to happen on the basis of appearance or color of the skin, race, religion, caste, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, appearance, nationality, regional origins, spoken language, place of birth, place of residence or economic background.

In this view, to create awareness among the students about the evil effects of ragging and its legal implications, the anti ragging cell in association with IQAC had arranged a street play on 23-07-2021, Friday at 10.30 AM in the college campus.

Students of different streams were invited to prepare and perform street plays. It was an act of 45 minutes which covered all aspects of ragging. How a ragging can happen, what a student should do when she encounters such situation, what happens to a person who is encountered with ragging, what can be done to overcome such mental and physical torture, what actions does the college takes when ragging complaints are lodged etc. were covered in the play.

After the play was completed, students precisely explained the moral behind the act. All students presented in the campus and witnessed the programme expressed a positive word of mouth and appreciated the effort.

SREE SIDDAGANGA COLLEGE OF ARTS, SCIENCE AND COMMERCE FOR WOMEN

Ragging can take many forms, including verbal abuse, physical assault, forced consumption of alcohol or drugs, nudity, coercion to perform embarrassing tasks, and psychological intimidation. The intention behind ragging is often to assert dominance, establish a hierarchy, or simply as a form of entertainment for the perpetrators, but it can have serious and long-lasting effects on the victims, ranging from psychological trauma to physical harm and even death in extreme cases.

Many countries have recognized the detrimental effects of ragging and have implemented laws, policies, and awareness campaigns to prevent and combat it. Educational institutions often have anti-ragging committees and helplines to provide support to victims and take swift action against perpetrators. Additionally, legal measures may include severe penalties such as expulsion, suspension, or criminal charges for those found guilty of ragging.

Creating a culture of respect, empathy, and inclusivity is crucial in preventing ragging and ensuring a safe and supportive environment for all students. Education about the harmful effects of ragging and fostering a sense of responsibility among students to intervene and report incidents are important steps in addressing this issue.

In this view, to create awareness among the students about the ill effects of ragging and its legal implications, the anti ragging cell in association with IQAC had arranged a street play on 03/02/2020, Monday at 10.15AM in the college campus. Since the selected time was a leisure time, all the students got an opportunity to witness the program.

Students of first year B.Com prepared and enacted a street play highlighting how ragging happens and what consequences that a student goes through being a victim of ragging. The play covered emotional and legal aspects of ragging. What a student should do when she is encountered with such situation, what actions does our college takes, what legal cover does she get everything was covered in the street play. Though it was an act of 20 minutes, it created an in depth awareness among the students.
