Objectives of the Programme

The competition was organized with the following objectives:

- Create awareness: Sensitize students to the harmful physical, psychological and social consequences of ragging.
- Promote a safe campus: Emphasize the importance of maintaining a secure, inclusive and ragging-free educational environment.
- Encourage responsible behavior: Strengthen values of mutual respect, empathy, discipline and responsible conduct among students.
- Provide a creative platform: Enable students to communicate anti-ragging messages through innovative visual presentations.

Event Proceedings

The competition commenced at 2.30 p.m. in the Zoology Lab. Seven teams participated and presented posters based on the theme “Say No to Ragging.” The participants used creative illustrations, slogans and meaningful visual messages to communicate the importance of preventing ragging and maintaining positive relationships among students.

The posters reflected the student’s understanding of the theme and highlighted the need for mutual respect, empathy, responsible behaviour and a supportive campus culture. The activity encouraged students to think creatively while addressing an important issue concerning student safety and well-being.

Judging and Evaluation

The posters were evaluated by the following two judges: Mrs. H. G. Sarvamangala and Dr. Nalina N. The entries were assessed on the basis of relevance to the theme, creativity and overall presentation.

Outcome of the Programme

- Awareness: Students gained greater awareness of the harmful effects of ragging and the importance of preventing such practices.
- Safe and inclusive campus: The programme reinforced the need for a campus environment based on safety, dignity and inclusion.
- Student engagement: The competition encouraged active participation and creative expression on an important social and institutional concern.
- Positive values: The activity promoted mutual respect, empathy, responsible behaviour and good rapport among students.

Conclusion

The Poster Making Competition on “Say No to Ragging” successfully provided an engaging platform for students to communicate strong anti-ragging messages through creative expression. The participation of seven teams demonstrated students’ interest in promoting a safe and respectful campus culture. The programme contributed to strengthening awareness about the importance of a ragging-free campus and fostering mutual respect, empathy, responsible behaviour and good rapport among students.

Prize Distribution / Recognition

The results were announced at the end of the competition, and the winning participants were recognized for their creative and effective presentation of the anti-ragging theme.
