Report: One-Day Workshop on Internship

Organized by: Tumkur University Political Science Teachers Academy (R.) in association with the Department of Political Science, SSCASCW. Date: March 7, 2026 Venue: Room No. 11, Sree Siddaganga College of Arts, Science, and Commerce for Women (SSCASCW), Tumkur.

Introduction

On March 7, 2026, the Tumkur University Political Science Teachers Academy (R.), in collaboration with the Department of Political Science, organized a comprehensive one-day workshop focused on Internships. The program aimed to provide students and faculty with essential guidance on the practical aspects of academic internships and their role in career development.

Inaugural Session

The workshop commenced with a soulful invocation by Aditi H, a first-year B.A. (HEP) student, which created a positive atmosphere for the day's proceedings. Following the prayer, Dr. Nagaraju M. S., Associate Professor of Political Science at GFGC, Madhugiri, delivered the welcome address, formally greeting the dignitaries, faculty members, and student participants.

Technical Session & Resource Address

The core of the workshop was led by the distinguished resource person, Dr. Girija K. S., Associate Professor from the Department of Political Science, University College of Arts, Tumkur University.

In her address, Dr. Girija provided an in-depth analysis of:

- The structural requirements of academic internships.
- The process of identifying relevant organizations for Political Science students.
- The methodology for documentation and report writing during the internship period.

Dignitaries and Keynote Remarks

The event was graced by several prominent academicians:

- Chief Guests: Dr. Honnanjanaih D. R. (President of the Political Science Teachers Academy) and Dr. Radhakrishna (Secretary of the Academy and Chairman of BOE, GFGC Kunigal) shared their perspectives on the evolving landscape of higher education and the necessity of field-based learning.
- IQAC Presence: Dr. Sheela K. P., IQAC Coordinator and HOD of the Department of English, was present to underscore the quality standards and academic importance of such workshops.

Presidential Address

The program was presided over by Dr. H. M. Dakshinamurthy, Principal of SSCASCW, Tumkur. In his presidential remarks, he emphasized that internships are a bridge between theoretical knowledge and professional reality, urging students to utilize these opportunities to enhance their employability.

Conclusion

The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Dharanesh S. T., Treasurer of the Political Science Teachers Academy. The entire program was efficiently moderated by Smt. Pavana B. S., HOD of the Department of Political Science at SSCASCW, who served as the Master of Ceremony.

The event successfully met its objective of clarifying the nuances of internships for the student community, ensuring they are well-prepared for their upcoming practical assignments.
